

MOBILITY

Ages 12–15

12-Week Progressive Program

LCB TRAINING

Coach Broc • Player Development Program

Program Overview

At ages 12 to 15, athletes are growing fast and muscle tightness becomes a real issue that limits performance and increases injury risk. This program targets the specific mobility demands of baseball — hip rotation for hitting, thoracic rotation for throwing, and ankle and hamstring flexibility for fielding. Do this consistently and your body will move better in every aspect of the game.

Program Structure

Weeks 1–4 (Foundation): Building baseline flexibility in the hips, hamstrings, shoulders, and thoracic spine.

Weeks 5–8 (Build): Deepening ranges of motion and introducing baseball-specific rotation patterns.

Weeks 9–12 (Performance): Flow sequences that mirror hitting and throwing mechanics.

Do this 3–4x per week. Works great as a pre-practice warm-up or post-practice cooldown. Sessions take 15–25 minutes.

Exercise Glossary – Mobility (Ages 12-15)

Quick form reminders for every exercise in this program, listed alphabetically for easy reference.

90/90 Hip Stretch: Sit with both knees at 90 degrees, one in front and one to the side, lean gently into the front hip and hold.

Ankle Circles: Lift one foot off the ground and rotate slowly at the ankle, full circles each direction.

Cat-Cow: On hands and knees, arch the back up (cat) then drop the belly and lift the head (cow), alternate slowly.

Couch Stretch (hip flexor): Place one knee on the ground near a wall, raise that foot up the wall, keep the torso upright and drive the hip forward to feel the stretch.

Deep Squat Hold: Feet shoulder-width apart, squat as low as comfortable, hold onto a post or keep arms extended forward for balance.

Doorway Chest Stretch: Place both forearms on a doorframe, step forward gently until you feel the chest and shoulder open up.

Fielding Hip Opener: From an athletic fielding stance, rotate one knee outward like opening a gate, hold briefly, alternate sides.

Kneeling Thoracic Rotation: In a half-kneeling position, place one hand behind the head and rotate the elbow toward the sky, follow with eyes.

Lat Stretch (overhead): Grab a pole or rack overhead with one hand, step slightly away and let the lat stretch by leaning into it.

Pigeon Pose: From a push-up position, bring one knee forward and place it behind the wrist, extend the other leg back, hold the hip stretch.

Scorpion Stretch: Lie face down, swing one foot up and across the body toward the opposite hand, keep shoulders flat on the ground.

Seated Hamstring Stretch: Sit with legs straight out, hinge forward from the hips reaching toward the toes, keep the back flat.

Sleeper Stretch: Lie on the throwing-arm side, bend that elbow to 90 degrees, use the other hand to gently press the forearm down toward the ground.

Standing Hip Circle: Stand on one leg, lift the other knee and draw large circles with it in both directions.

Thoracic Extension over Foam Roller: Place a foam roller horizontally under the mid-back, support the head, gently extend over the roller.

World's Greatest Stretch: Step into a deep lunge, place both hands inside the front foot, rotate one arm toward the ceiling, then switch sides.
